

THE NEW DELEGATE TO THE STATE CONVENTION

Val'e and Foss Show Gains in Boston; District Attorney Fight Close; Charter Contest Undecided.

There is doubt, however, they pointed out that in some sections of the city this bill was being fought, especially by negro voters. The negroes, it was reported, were voting for the most part the Republican ticket, but were voting for the bill for the bill.

The fight over the two city charter plans developed a much hotter contest than anticipated. In Ward 8, the Democrats were out for Plan One, and declared that it would be a winner. In Ward 20 there was a split on the plan, even in the Democratic party. The Republicans chose the first plan, and the Democrats chose Plan Two. The bill for the bill was a split on the plan, even in the Democratic party. The Republicans chose the first plan, and the Democrats chose Plan Two.

Timothy and Cotton Center.

A conference early today between the two Aldermen Timothy and Cotton Center, who were out for Ward 18, was believed to have had something to do with the district attorney fight. Timothy is for the bill, and Cotton for the bill. After the talk Timothy declared that he had not discussed the bill with Cotton, and that he would vote in his ward. It was reported that the two were talking with the district attorney.

James Donovan, chairman of the Democratic city committee, at noon said: "The bill will win easily. At most I believe it will be a close contest. The bill will win easily. At most I believe it will be a close contest. The bill will win easily. At most I believe it will be a close contest."

DONOVAN SIGNS TO MANAGE SOX
IN LAKE'S PLACE

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

MATTY BALDWIN
BEATS WILLIE RILEY
IN HARD FIGHT

Baron Mouch Acquires Some Butterfly Scenery and Gets In Soak for Fair--By Herriman

DONOVAN WILL MANAGE RED SOX IN PLACE OF FRED LAKE, WHO RETIRES

Paul Donovan today signed a contract to manage the Red Sox next season. He succeeds Fred Lake, who will be the team's first manager. Donovan was called to the Boston club's office this morning in answer to a summons from President Taylor, and after the two had talked the matter over a few minutes Donovan signed a contract. The contract is for one year. Donovan acted as scout for the Red Sox last season.

Followers of baseball wonder the move by President Taylor, who once, and they believe that Donovan, with the fine tactical that makes up the Red Sox organization, will prove a divinely chosen. There is no doubt in the national game that Donovan does know. As a player Donovan was one of the best. His experience as manager of other teams will stand him in good stead when he takes charge of the Boston club. He is popular with the players.

PATRICK DONOVAN

The principal fault found with Donovan as a manager was his lack of aggressive spirit, but there are managers and very successful ones that are not at all aggressive. "Cotton" Mack of the Athletics, for instance, after all his years of managing, was not aggressive in the least. Donovan is a young, energetic, and aggressive manager, and he is the ideal man to succeed Lake in the Red Sox position.

Donovan has managed the Washington Senators, the St. Louis Cardinals, and the Boston Braves. In each case he has made many good players into stars. He has a keen eye for talent, and he is the ideal man to succeed Lake in the Red Sox position.

Rugged Bout Between Local Boxers BALDWIN WINS OVER WILLIE RILEY

Although almost beaten in a score of rounds in the tenth and eleventh rounds, Willie Riley, of South Boston, came back in the twelfth and final round of his bout with Matty Baldwin of Charlestown, in the first round of the National A. C. of South Boston, and gave his opponent some more than he received. The decision was given to the latter by Referee Harry Hodgins.

The Bostoner fight had given one of the greatest exhibitions of grit and stamina ever seen in the ring. In the tenth round Baldwin punched him from one corner to the other, and even sent him sprawling through the ropes, only Riley coming back, came back with a smile on his face and finished out the round, although it looked as though the entire crowd minutes were not finished.

There was much cheering from the crowd that it was usually in some two or three other fights. So excited did Riley's friends become that they ran into the ring and tried to jump in and fight him. He was forced to leave the ring and his friends were taken care of by the police.

In the seventh round the battle was on to see a repetition of the preceding one. Riley, acting on the advice of his trainer, tried to knock Baldwin out with a left hook. Baldwin, however, was not so easily taken down. He fought back and won the round.

DEATH HAS BEEN HARVARD TEAM

That the death of three will have a demoralizing effect on the play of the Harvard team in its subsequent games is the opinion of some of the Harvard coaches.

The issue for three of the team is laid on the West Point coaches and trainers, who will be under a distinct handicap when it comes to the game with Yale in account of the absence of the three players in the West Point game.

Hand tailoring by high class journeymen tailors COSTS
GOLD MONEY. This class of work cannot do suits or overcoats to be sold at $20 WITHOUT LOSS OR WEIGHT of some of the main points of perfectly tailored clothes. We've proved that fact to thousands of correct dressers. Newman-made coats are distinguished in these details: the COLLAR that HUGS the NECK—the COAT FRONT that does NOT CURL, yet remains flexible and unbreakable,
LAPELS that LAY PERFECTLY flat and BACK that DRAPES to the LINES of the FIGURE. Such and such only are Newman-made features at $20 that others find difficult to duplicate for $30.

GOMPERS WILL FIGHT TO THE HIGHEST COURT IN COUNTRY

membership and the persons who had formerly been prevented by the boycott from patronizing the business.

While these acts, if they had effected any result, might not have answered to more than a comment or criticism of the action of the defendants, if the remarks, when published and read, were such as to lead to a consideration of the merits of the case and to the degree of the court and lead to a discussion of the conduct of the defendants would be chargeable with contempt for producing this result.

Defies Contempt Charge.

Contempt may be committed by words and intimation. It may consist in maliciously saying or doing anything which has a tendency to induce others to disobey the authority of the court. While the publication of the defendants' remarks is not a contempt, it is a contempt if it is intended to induce others to disobey the order of the court. The defendants, however, do not intend to disobey the order of the court, but they intend to make their followers to do likewise. If they succeed in this, it is not their fault, but the fault of the court.

Long Fight by Union Leaders for 'Free Speech'

Stirring agitation for labor to the depths and depths of the contempt of the court, the defendants, in the opinion of the court, have been guilty of a contempt. The court, however, is not satisfied with the defendants' explanation. The court, therefore, has ordered the defendants to pay a fine of $1000. If the defendants do not pay the fine, the court will order the defendants to be imprisoned.

Question of Jurisdiction.

It is insisted that the defendants are held for disobedience of the order of the court. It is also insisted that the defendants are held for contempt. The court, however, is not satisfied with the defendants' explanation. The court, therefore, has ordered the defendants to pay a fine of $1000. If the defendants do not pay the fine, the court will order the defendants to be imprisoned.

Far-Seeing Effect.

The court has a very important far-seeing effect. It has shown the defendants that they are not invulnerable. It has shown the defendants that they are not immune from the law. It has shown the defendants that they are not above the law. It has shown the defendants that they are not above the court.

Effect on Unionism.

All of which means that out of the case the defendants have gained a great deal. They have gained the respect of the court. They have gained the respect of the public. They have gained the respect of the law.

Effect on the Country.

The case has a very important effect on the country. It has shown the country that the law is not a mere formality. It has shown the country that the law is a living thing. It has shown the country that the law is a thing that can be used to protect the rights of the people.

Effect on the World.

The case has a very important effect on the world. It has shown the world that the law is not a mere formality. It has shown the world that the law is a living thing. It has shown the world that the law is a thing that can be used to protect the rights of the people.
